40 Years of Heavenly Providence

Parish : Life Giving Stream in the wilderness

Celebrating 40 years of its mission and journey

Message From Vicar

"The eternal God is your dwelling place and underneath are the everlasting arms" Deut.33:27

In our journey we are on the threshold of completing one more year. Hence it is a time to look back and evaluate our life. The mentioned verse is the promise of God and faith proclamation of Israelites. This should be the continuous faith affirmation of the people of God. Christmas is emphasizing this faith proclamation. It says Jesus is Immanuel, which means God is with us in our journey of life. Christmas also teaches that the greatness of life does not depend on external factors of glittering materials but upon the attitude a person takes and responds. Positive attitude and response to various life experiences depend on how much we allow God to control and guide our life.

Most of the time, our lives journey is equivalent to journey in the wilderness. Wilderness has both geographical and psychological realms. Geographically it is a place of hardship, less fertile and barren. Psychologically it is a period of agony, loneliness, uncertainty, sorrows and so on. If we analyze the migration of Israelites, they began as a privileged community. Later it turns to become a heavy burden in all respects. The gulf life begins as a privileged community and later becomes hard because of various reasons.

Feeling of who I am, my place in my home land, response of people when I return, are deep thoughts that hover in every individual's mind. Even though we live here, nostalgic feelings are immersed in every action. Nowadays, life in the Gulf has become crucial and hectic. People undergo feelings of insecurity in each and every dealing. Uncertainty about jobs and future rings loud. Gulf Malayalees are working hard to uplift their families and relatives and contribute a lot for the homeland.

In the midst of crisis and difficulties parish serves as a life giving stream. Parish represents the presence of God and it is the sanctuary of God. If we approach this sanctuary with deep faith we can draw comfort from the stream. This will enable us to move forward to face the challenges and responsibilities of life smoothly.

As we enter into the New Year we require (1) Deep faith in God and consciousness of divine care. God is with us throughout our journey and enables us to reach the destination. (2) Discipline our life by being punctual in daily routine and set goals. (3) Maintain a good relationship with fellow beings and nature. Think of how much one can contribute for the health of other beings and for the health of nature. (4) Vigilance in our attitude.

Time runs short so be watchful of every deed
May God Almighty enable us to do the same.....

Rev. John Philip P.
Vicar

THEME BOOK

Articles are invited from the parish members to include in the book which is to be published in relation to current year's theme. PARISH LIFE GIVING STREAM IN THE WILDERNESS.

We are expecting to view this theme in diverse perspective:-

What is the biblical teaching and its interpretation in relation to the theme?

How God/Parish become life giving stream historically?

What about the teachings of other religion and find uniqueness of Biblical teachings?

How the present theme make radiance internally, and what are the psychological impact of it?

EXPOUNDING THE THEME

Area Prayer Groups and Organizations can arrange:-

1. Drawing and storytelling for children
2. Elocution on the basis of the theme for youths
3. Dramatic exploration—one act play, skit, mime etc
4. Sharing and witness time for the alumni of Sharjah Mar Thoma Sunday School
5. Talent show to explore our cultural roots
