- Only the first three positions will be eligible for prizes and only those who secure 50% or more will be considered for prizes.

1. LORD, who may dwell in your sanctuary? Who may live on your holy hill? (Psalm 15:1)
2. He whose walk is blameless, who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from his heart. (Psalm 15:2)
3. For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have. (2 Corinthians 8:12)
4. But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! (Galatians 1:8)
5. "His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!" (Matthew 25:21)
6. And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. (Romans 8:28)
7. But the things that come out of the mouth come from heart, and these make a man 'unclean'. (Matthew 15:17)
8. "Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity." (1 Timothy 4:12)
9. Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. (Ephesians 4:29)
10. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. (Psalm 100:4)
11. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations (Psalm 100:5)

12. Unless the Lord builds the house, its builders labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city the watchmen stand guard in vain. (Psalm 127:1)
13. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. (Philippians 4: 6)
14. If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. (James 1:5)
15. But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. (Galatians 5:22-23)
16. Be careful not to do your 'acts of righteousness' before men, to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. (Matthew 6:1)
17. Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. (Matthew 11:28)

1 Corinthians 13

18. If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.
19. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.
20. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames but have not love, I gain nothing.
21. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.
22. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.
23. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.
24. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
25. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away,
26. For we know in part and we prophesy in part,
27. but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears.
28. When I was a child, I talked like a child; I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me.
29. Now we see a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.
30. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
